Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/823,368	Applicant(s) BOGEN ET AL.
	Examiner Lyle A. Alexander	Art Unit 1743

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 25 January 2006.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 3,5-8,10 and 12-14 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,183,693. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both are directed to a slide staining apparatus having means to independently heat a slide .

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1, 3,5-8,10 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heidt et al (USP 5,089,229), Copland et al. (USP 5,654,200), Kerr et al. (USP 5,075,079) or Rogers et al. (USP 4,043,292) in view of Potter et al. (USP 5,819,842).

See the appropriate paragraphs of the 7/22/05 Office actions for the teachings of Heidt et al (USP 5,089,229), Copland et al. (USP 5,654,200), Kerr et al. (USP 5,075,079) and Rogers et al. (USP 4,043,292).

These references teach a plurality of slides heated by a plural heating means and are silent to the claimed heating surface supporting a single slide.

Potter et al. teach in the abstract and columns 1-2 that it is desirable to heat slides independently based upon the specific reaction/conditions required for each slide. Potter et al. teach the appropriate sensors to properly regulate the temperature.

It would have been within the skill of the art to modify Heidt et al (USP 5,089,229), Copland et al. (USP 5,654,200), Kerr et al. (USP 5,075,079) or Rogers et al. (USP 4,043,292) in view of Potter et al. and use individual heating elements and control to gain the advantages of tailoring the precise temperature for the application of interest.

The court has decided St. Regis Paper Co. v. Bemis Co., Inc., (193 USPQ 8,11) that it is within the skill of the art to duplicate parts to achieve a multiplied effect. Conversely, it would have been within the skill of the art to minimize parts, such as a single element, to achieve the well known and expected result of a minimized effect. It is desirable to have a device capable of processing a single sample so that a sample with a higher priority can be individually processed. It would have been within the skill of the art to modify Heidt et al (USP 5,089,229), Copland et al. (USP 5,654,200) or Rogers et al. (USP 4,043,292) and provide a single slide holder to gain the above advantages and in view of the above court decision.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3,5-8,10 and 12-14 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Lyle A. Alexander whose telephone number is 571-272-1254. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Jill Warden can be reached on 571-272-1267. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
